The Raven News

Hello Edgewood,

Spring temperatures are here at last and the valley is absolutely stunning! The school is as busy as ever with a couple of exciting events approaching.

Tomorrow, Friday May 26th, Rebecca Sharpe will be helping our intermediate students to do some spring gardening around the school. Make sure your child brings a hat, gloves, and sunscreen as the weather looks to be hot!

Monday May 29th, EES students will be heading to Nakusp for the Emergency services day. The local emergency services organizations will be present with all their equipment and vehicles to show our students what their role is.

Tuesday May 30th, we will be visited by Ganishka Silverfox. Ms. Silverfox will be conducting a blanket ceremony to represent the First Nations' experiences through pre-contact, treaty-making, colonization and resistance. Please send your child to school with a blanket that they can use for the day in the gym.

On Wednesday May 31st, we will have a school assembly at 2:50pm

The District track meet takes place on Thursday, June 8th. The EES intermediate class will be participating. Parents are welcome to come and cheer our kids on.

Wishing you a wonderful sun drenched weekend!

Michael Hibberson
